

Future Fintech Publishes Investor Presentation on GlobalKey Blockchain SharedMall

XI'AN, China, Oct. 30, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Future FinTech Group Inc. (NASDAQ: FTFT), a financial technology company and integrated producer of fruit-related products, today published an investor presentation about its subsidiary GlobalKey Supply Chain Limited. The Company plans to use the presentation to discuss the business and development of its blockchain-based shared shopping mall in presentations to current and potential investors. The investor presentation is available on the Investor Relations section of the Company's website at www.ftft.top.

The investor presentation highlights the goals, strategies, features, cores, advantages, and business model of GlobalKey SharedMall.

Key points include:

"Sharing economy + blockchain + artificial intelligence + O2O" global integration. The perfect combination of blockchain and sharing economy will create a global shared e-commerce with great energy, which would enable mutual benefits among all parties of the SharedMall. Based upon the core technologies of blockchain, artificial intelligence, and e-commerce, SharedMall solves problems of the commercial application in the shared economy.

Innovative application of sharing economy and consumer investment philosophy in e-commerce.

Consumers will receive the credits from the mall or/and store. The credits can be used to purchase in the mall or/and store, or can be used according to the instructions of the mall or/and store.

"Building the GlobalKey Blockchain SharedMall is a significant step of the Company. When the blockchain technology applies to the e-commerce platform, it could reconstruct the business mode of the shopping mall, promote the development of shared economy and consumer investment and improve the user experience through practical applications. We plan to start a trial run in December this year and officially launch the ShareMall APP in January 2019," says Yongke Xue, Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of Future FinTech.
